Diversity of Opinion on the Anti-Polygamy Bill.

Rosecrans Interviewed—Petitions for Sergeant Mason's Pardon—Chinaman Naturalized.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

WASHINGTON, March 15.—During the discussion of the anti-polygamy bill in the House, Haskell and Cassidy spoke at some length on the amendments offered by the former. The House, however, refused to adopt the amendments. Buckner said great as was the wrong of polygamy, the bill was a greater wrong on the constitution. Spencer, Kenna and Herbert stated that they were in favor of the purpose of the bill, but declared the belief that it was unconstitutional. Townsend, of Illinois, argued that the bill was unconstitutional and was an intringment on the religious liberty of the people. Singleton, of Illinois, said he would vote against the bill. Convers

OPPOSED THE BILL

On the ground that it would organize anarchy in Utah instead of law. Williams, of Wisconsin, argued eloquently in its favor. Robeson maintained that the bill was a blow against free government. Burrows said he would vote for the bill, but believed it would disappoint expectations. Haskell spoke in bitter terms against polygamy, and in favor of the bill. The bill was then passed in exactly the same shape in which it came from the Senate—Yeas, 199; Nays, 42. Following is

THE NEGATIVE VOTE:

Armfield, Atherton, Belmont, Blanchard, Buckner, Cabell, Carlisle, Chapman, Convers, Cook, Cox, (N. C.) Traverse, Dibrell, Evans, Garrison, Gunther, Herbert, Herndon, Hewitt (N. Y.), Hooker, House, Jones (Tex.), Kenna, Knott, Manning, McMillan, Mills, Morey, Phister, Regan, Robertson, Shackelford, Shelley, Singleton (Ills.), Thompson (Ky.), Tileman, Tucker, Upson, Warner, Wellborn, Williams (Ala.).

ROSECRANS SUBMITS TO AN INTERVIEW.

General Rosecrans has submitted to a long interview, to be published in a local paper to-morrow morning, upon the Garfield letter. He speaks more in sorrow than in anger of what he terms a breach of faith in his chief of staff, and defends his campaign as worthy of the thanks of Congress, which he received at the instance of General Garfield. Members of the army of the Cumberland express much regret at the opening of such a controversy.

IMMIGRANTS ARRIVING.

The number of immigrants arrived during eight months ending Feb. 28 were 375,091.

NEW YORK NOTES.

The Garfield Club Petition for the Release of Mason.

NEW YORK, March 15.—The Garfield Club expect soon to secure 10,000 signatures to the petition asking President Arthur to pardon Sergeant Mason.

AN EX-MAYOR KILLED.

A special says that the ex-Mayor of Dallas, Texas, who was killed by a man named Cowart yesterday, was known throughout Colorado, California, Montana and Texas. He was driven from Montana years ago by vigilantes because he was the legal defender of road agents. He was a native of Kentucky, aged about forty-five.

The Girls on a Strike.

LAWRENCE, Mass., March 15.—The Pacific Mail announces a reduction of wages for mule and ring spinners. The latter, all women and girls, abandoned the mill, and 64,000 spindles are thus stopped.

Another Insane.

WATERBURY, Vermont, March 15.—Michael McCaffery, formerly an inmate of an insane asylum, killed his mother and wife Sunday night, tumbled his babies into the cellar and to-day drove into town with his seven children, the eldest aged fourteen.

Root it Out.

BALTIMORE, March 15—The Baltimore Conference of the M. E. Church adopted a resolution urging the prompt extirpation of polygamy.

Naturalizing Chinamen.

PAILADELPHIA, March 15.—Henry Lyon, a Chinaman over seven years in this country, was naturalized to-day.

THE SUNDAY LAW.

An Issue Made at Salinas—The Temperance Men Beaten.

SALINAS, March 15.—At the charter election to-day two tickets were voted for, and notwithstanding the storm quite a large vote was polled. The issue was between those favoring the enforcement of the Sunday law and those opposed to it. The temperance men elected but one man, J. P. Raymond, Councilman in the Second Ward. The Taxpayers' ticket, with Mayor Ball at the head, was successful throughout.

THE LEAGUE WILL CONTEST.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 15.—A meeting was held last evening by the League of Freedom organization, composed of all classes of persons who are in the habit of keeping open their places of business on Sunday. The League resolved to contest the Sunday law, which, by the recent decision of the Supreme Court, has been decided constitutional, and to keep open their places of business as heretofore.

THE FLOODS.

Water Falling at Memphis—Rising at Other Points.

MEMPHIS, March 15.—The river continues falling. It now marks thirty-five feet six inches on the gauge and is declining at all points down the river.

THE WORST OVER.

HELENA, Ark., March 15.—The river continues falling at the rate of two and one-half inches in twenty-four hours. The overflow in the city is passing off in like ratio. The worst is over, although there is little or no diminution in the suffering, except that aid is furnished by the Government, which is but a modicum compared to what the country required to save its starving people.

OFFICERS TO REPORT.

WASHINGTON, March 15.—The Secretary of War has telegraphed General Beckwith at St. Louis about sending army officers to various points in Louisiana to make detailed reports of the destitution. He has also instructed the Commissary-General to have ten thousand rations forwarded to the Commissioners for Illinois for the relief of Shawneetown.

BUSINESS SUSPENDED.

NEW ORLEANS, March 15.—A boat from Camden reports the rise all the the way down the river at only three and a half inches below 1874. Nearly all of Trenton is under water and in some places it is three feet deep. Business is suspended and the roads impassable. Communication is had only by water. Planting along the river is suspended, stock huddled together and many are dying from starvation and from buffalo gnats, which are worse now than known for twenty years. Rain threatened to-day and should it come, Monroe, the highest point on the east bank of the Ouechita, will be inevitably submerged. The condition of the country is alarming.

DISTRESS TERRIBLE.

VICKSBURG, March 15.—News from the overflowed district continues to pour in. The distress is terrible. A steamer from the Tallahatchie and Yazoo rivers, having left the mouth of the Coldwater, 457 miles above Vicksburg, Sunday morning at daylight, reports the water there five feet higher than ever known and still rising at the rate of seven inches in twenty-four hours. The people along the Tallahatchie and Yazoo rivers are living in the tops of residences and in gin lofts. In many places the water was up to the eaves of the buildings. The horses and mules will be pretty generally saved, but a greater portion of all the stock will be drowned. Barges, skiffs and other means of relief are being freely sent to the sufferers at the different points. A very large amount of stock and many families arrived to-day from different localities. The inhabitants of the delta Louisiana are abandoning their homes as fast as they can be removed to this city by ferry boat and sandbarges, which have been exceedingly busy all day.

REPORTED LOSS OF LIFE.

ST. LOUIS, March 15th.—John Cain, a livestock owner of this city, who has just returned from down the river, says he was informed that when the levee at Riverton broke, a barge upon which some sixty persons had taken refuge was swept through the crevasse by the raging current, and up to the time he passed that point there had been no tidings of it. The belief was that if the barge escaped destruction the people upon it were starving, but a greater fear was that the barge had been dashed against trees in the swamp and broken to pieces and those upon it drowned. Cain's story is not much credited.

YUMA ETCHINGS.

The Injunction Suit of the S. P. R. R. Continued.

YUMA, March 14th.—The District Court met yesterday with but few cases on the calendar. The injunction suit of the Southern Pacific Railroad Company will be continued for the term to abide the hearing in a similar action pending in Maricopa county. The services of the District Attorney having been secured by the railroad company, and he being their attorney of record, the county of Yuma is not represented in this important case.

DR. TAGGART.

Dr. Taggart is thought to be in an improved condition to-day.

DIED EN ROUTE.

Frederick Schempf, a passenger on the steamer Mohave, just arrived from up the river, was taken ashore on the 11th at Norton's Landing, owing to sickness, and died the next morning. He was an old citizen of Mohave county, and had on the steamer $6,000 or $7,000, which he willed just before he died to an aged mother in Germany. F. W. Grounds, of the firm of Welton & Grounds, of Mineral Park, is the executor of the will. The remains were buried at Norton's Landing.

Citrus Fair at National City.

SAN DIEGO, March 15.—The Citrus Fair opened this forenoon with a good attendance. The display has never been excelled in Southern California, and elicits the surprise and admiration of visitors from the neighboring counties. There are five hundred and thirty-six entries by fifty-three exhibitors, and every particle of space in the Horticultural Hall is occupied. The entries include thirty-seven varieties of oranges, twenty-one varieties lemons, three varieties limes, fourteen varieties apples, citrons, guavas, bananas, peaches, apricots, plums, pears, Japanese plums, olives, almonds, dried figs, raisins, and every variety of fruit, canned and in glass; dried zante currants, every variety of jellies in glass, several kinds of wine and a large display of vegetables. The display of oranges from the interior valleys is much larger than at last year's fair. The Riverside people have a small but handsome exhibit. The fair was hardly got into running order to-day, but everything will be in complete shape to-night, and to-morrow will be a very interesting day.

Weather cloudy and threatening rain.

SAN FRANCISCO BUDGET.

The Gatherer's Captain Gathered In—Says He Is Innocent.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16th.—The ship Gatherer arrived last evening from Wilmington, and Captain Sparks was arrested. He refused to make any statement, saying simply that he is innocent of the charges. He showed some disposition to make a fight, but a showing of the Marshall's pistol quieted him.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic State Central Committee met this afternoon and fixed San Jose as the place and the 20th of June as the date of the next State Convention. Each county gets one delegate, and one additional for each 200 votes cast for Hancock.

KILLED BY A FALLING SIGN.

Mrs. Eliza, wife of Thomas Andrews, stage carpenter at the Baldwin Theatre, was killed on Market street this afternoon by the falling of a sign. She was a native of California, aged twenty-four.

AFTERNOON STOCKS.

Virginia, 85c; Union, 10¼; Nevada 7½; Eureka, 19½; Jacket, 1½; Best, 5½; Overman, 35c; Belcher, 60c; Utah, 4½; Diablo, 5½; Belle, 8½; Bodie, 4½; Mono, 1½; King, 18.

SYMPATHIZING WITH THE STRIKERS.

A large meeting was held last evening by the Trades Assembly of this city, at which was unanimously adopted resolutions sympathizing with the strikers at Omaha, and condemning in strong terms the action of the authorities for invoking military aid; also extending hearty sympathies to the leaders of the strike who are arrested.

THE MARKETS.

Wheat—more doing. No. 1, white, $1,62½; extra choice, $1.63¾ asked; No. 2, white, $1.60. Barley—excited and lower. No. 1, brewing, $1.72½@ $1,75; No. 1, feed, $1.55 bid, $1.63¾ asked; June, $1.45; July, $1.30@ $1.32½; August, $1.15; September, $1.10; No. 2, feed, $1.07½. September oats, extra choice, $1.82½@1.85; No. 1, $1.78¾ bid, $1.82½ asked. Rye—lower; No. 1, $2.20. Corn—weak; $1.60 bid, $1.72½ asked.

RAIN REPORTS.

AT SANTA BARBARA.

SANTA BARBARA, March 15.—The rainfall from 1 P. M. yesterday to 1 P. M. to-day measured 1.43 inches. Total for the season, 13.94 inches. A calm and warm wind from the southeast. The thermometer marks 58°. Still cloudy.

AT VENTURA.

SAN BUENAVENTURA, March 15.—The rain continues. The storm has given 3.55 inches of rain, making 10.05 for the season. A warm south wind prevails, with low barometer. The San Buenaventura river is impassable, and the mail is stopped. The Santa Clara river is also up, so that probably there will be no mail from the north to-day. The county can well spare the mails in view of the compensating benefits of the rain.

INSURED—PROVIDED.

Advices from Merced and Stanislaus counties are to the effect that the present storm will insure a large crops, provided that continuous north winds do not follow.

A Blow—Narrow Gauge R. R.

BAKERSFIELD, Cal., March 15.—It has been blowing heavily all day from the southward. This is the fourth day the gale has held from that direction. A few drops of rain have fallen occasionally, but not enough to be of benefit. The winds have already done much damage to pasture, and if they continue much longer it will be serious.

A NARROW GAUGE.

There was a mass-meeting of citizens here last night to consider the question of building a narrow gauge railroad to the bay. A committee was appointed to confer with the counties north of us and induce them to take action. It is proposed to call a convention of all the counties interested to take measures to ascertain the amount of money that will be subscribed.

A Tornado at San Mateo.

SAN MATEO, March 15.—A tornado passed over the town this morning at half-past eight. Its course was from south to north. It first struck the residence of John Parrott, moving his hothouse about two feet on its foundation, and next struck the Episcopal church, taking off about one-fourth of its roof, taking in its course trees and fences for the space of about one hundred yards wide, crushing and twisting them in a fearful manner. No lives lost.

HOW UTAH FEELS.

Great Excitement and General Rejoicing—Freed at Last.

SALT LAKE, March 14.—The receipt of the news of the passage of the Edmunds bill has created great excitement in this city. The people who have waited twenty years for help from the Government can hardly realize that action has been taken at last, and to-day men hugged each other on the streets for joy. The young Mormons are equally elated and favor the bill. They have been kept in the background for years by the old graybeards and chafe under the restraint. They now talk openly in favor of a new deal, and

SNAP THEIR FINGERS

In the faces of the old heads of the church. None of these young people have ever favored polygamy. To-night there is a meeting of the High Council, and it is rumored that there will be a split in the church on receipt of the news. The Tribune office issued an extra and hoisted the American flag over the building. Three years ago the same office was barricaded and filled with armed men, while the priests were preaching in the tabernacle and advocating its demolition. The people of Utah feel to-day as did the negroes of the South when the Emancipation Proclamation was issued.

FOR BEATING A CHINAMAN.

The Tribune's editorial this morning said that Congress may make laws not to let any more Chinamen come to this country, but everybody needs to understand plainly that those who are here must be well treated. One person who probably realizes this now is Patrolman John Brady, who was dismissed from the police force yesterday for having beaten a Chinaman recently and held him while two young ruffians cut off the inoffensive foreigner's queue.

Failed to Identify.

OMAHA, March 15.—An attempt to identify the militiaman who killed Geo. P. Armstrong was made this morning by Sheriff Miller and others, with a warrant for his arrest, but it proved a failure and the man yet remains unknown. It is suspected that he has left town. Armstrong's remains this afternoon were attended by eighteen hundred working men in procession with three bands of music.

CALIFORNIA RAISINS.

We have spoken of the capabilities of California in the way of grape growing with reference to the wine product. There is another product of the vine from which California is yet to reap an immense income, and she will feed the world with her raisins as well as with wheat. And we are marching rapidly to the front with our new interest. It is but a few years since California raisins were laughed at, and it was asserted east that the Malaga raisin could never be driven from the market by dried grapes from the Pacific Coast. But California is rapidly overcoming the prejudice and capturing the market. And already the importations of foreign raisins, excepting a few fancy brands, have almost ceased west of the Rocky mountains, and we are pushing into eastern markets. The estimated value of the raisin crop for 1881 is from $150,000 to $200,000. Large numbers of raisin grape cuttings are being set out in various parts of the State the present season, and notably in the Southern Counties, insuring a largely increased yield in the near future.

Raisins, we may truthfully say, is the poor man's crop. There are no tools needed but a plow and pruning shears, and not over two or three months labor is required to prune, cultivate and harvest a raisin vineyard. In three years from the cuttings quite a yield is obtained. During the year the viticulturist has ample time for other business and for social and mental improvement. None of his work need be hurried, and the vineyard once up in good bearing, the owner has the means of taking life easy. Lands removed from the business centres can yet be obtained cheaply for the growth of the grape, and those who have the means necessary to possess themselves of it would do a wise thing to invest. We extract a few words from a writer in the Annual Trade Review, who evidently understands his subject:

In 1880 Lake County, from three acres of grapes, dried and sold six and a half tons of raisins, which netted over $500. Large vineyards of the raisin variety have been planted in Sacramento, Tuolumne and Butte counties.

There is great reason in this rapid development of the raisin industry. The United States, in 1879, paid $2,600,000 for foreign raisins and currants. Why should not a large proportion of this amount be turned west across the continent instead of east over the Atlantic? Raisins are produced at less expense than wine and brandy, and, besides, they afford the large class of our temperance people an opportunity to benefit by the peculiar adaptability of our climate and soil to vine growing.

Land for raisin growing may be had for $10 per acre. It has been said that the expense of a vineyard per acre for the first year is $20; for the second, $15; the third pays expenses, and the fourth yields profit.

NARROW GAUGE RAILROAD.

The construction of a narrow gauge railroad was talked of a few months ago. The subject is now being revived, and by gentlemen who mean business. A nice little road running from San Pedro to Los Angeles, and thence to Pasadena and San Gabriel, would be a fine piece of property, and a most interesting accessory to the many objects of interest to that delightful region. The passenger and excursion traffic would make a narrow gauge pay well to that qaurter. Let it be built by all means.

THE effect of the electric light upon the hygiene of the eye was discussed at a recent meeting of the Societe de Medecin Publique et d'Hygiene Profes. sionale in Paris. The discussion was brought about by a communication rom Dr. Javal, a recognized authority on questions relating to vision, who declared electric light to be perfectly harmless, except, perhaps, in the case of some few persons who are specially sensitive to the more refrangible rays. The scientists who took part in the discussion were, with one exception, of the same opinion.

RECORDER LAMB informs us that his statement and r port will be completed to-morrow, and will be given to the public. Until then it is nothing more than a simple act of justice to ask the suspension of judgment. Mr. Lamb has not wilfully violated any law, but seems more the victim of circumstances.

MRS. SARAH B. COOPER, who has furnished so much food for the gossips in San Francisco, has re-opened her Bible class in the First Congregational church of that city, at the request of her friends. The class at its opening last Sunday numbered three hundred persons.

WE like the Los Angeles TIMES, Republican, but honorable and fearless.—Ventura Signal.

SENATOR J. F. Miller will please accept the thanks of the TIMES for public documents received.

SILENCED.

We are thankful for one thing at least—the rain has stopped the chronic croakers about rainfall and weather. If there ever was a bore it is the loafer weather-sharp, who annually sees ruin from the withholding of the early fall rains, and lodgement and rust from the average mid-winter storms, and certain ruin from the spring showers! And none of them have even a hill of beans at stake, and know no more of agriculture or viniculture than a sailor knows of driving a sixteen mule team, yet they are the first in every dry-goods-box street discussion, and are full of "wise saws and modern instances" of what has been and is to be. They are first to meet the stranger and regret that the delayed rain and the unprecedented cold nights have prevented the succulent grasses from clothing the hills with the usual winter mantle of green—and "it's an awful set back just as we got well started on the road to prosperity, and the immigration is just pouring in upon us, to have a dry year come to upset everything!"

Mark Twain was very happy in praying for destruction upon the relic hunters who deface the noble monuments and ruins of the old world, and wished that the Sphynx might roll over and bury the miserable fly who was pecking away at its nose with hammer and chisel! So we wish some emigration scheme could be gotten up with attraction enough in it to rid the community of a hundred or two of leeches and mushrooms in pants who have for years infested the community, and hung like a nightmare upon the heels of prosperity, and droned and drooled their miserable stuff about success and failure upon the listening ears of strangers who may not know the worthless source from whence come the words to which they listen. The first time there is a small-pox scare gotten up here we shall propose to vaccinate this lazzaroni from a genuine s. p. pustule, and see if we cannot kill them off.

THE ACREAGE.

A gentleman largely interested in grain, having loaded several ships for foreign ports last season, and who has closely watched the planting and sowing, is authority for the statement that there is thirty-three per cent more acreage seeded to grain in Los Angeles county this year than last. The foresight and forehandedness of the farmers in putting in their grain early and continuing, even though there were evidences of drought, will be handsomely rewarded this year, and as a rule this course will be found to be the proper one in any average year. With the incentive which the phenomenally high prices for corn will give there will be a vastly larger area of land planted to corn this year also, and next September will find our farmers with overflowing barns, full purses and joyous hearts.

FRELINGHUYSEN beat the typical Irishman at his own game in sending congratulations when he put his sentiments in this shape: "The feeling of indignation and thankfulness for the Queen's safety is deep and universal." The Secretary evidently meant well enough, but to say that the feeling of indignation at the Queen's safety is universal is hardly complimentary to the people he represented.

Reply to "Sauce."

To the Editor of the TIMES:

Your article headed "Sauce" is well understood. However, there should be hat-racks to put hats on, as the table would not answer the purpose. Besides, the ventilation of the library is very imperfect, which necessitates the opening of the doors and windows, causing a constant draft that is very dangerous to persons afflicted with neuralgia and rheumatism who may sit in the room bareheaded. Let the city fathers provide hat-racks and better ventilation, then there will be no cause for complaint, DR. ESCULAPIUS.

Saddles.

A day or two ago a horse with an eastern saddle stood hitched at the plaza. How small and contemptible to a Californian's eyes do these little toy saddles look compared to the great horned ones upon which we have enjoyed so many hours of pleasant riding and days of traveling. Let the tenderfoot stick to his baby saddle with a trotting horse and his plain road, but give us the California saddle with our lively mustangs and our grand mountain roads in preference.

Temecula.

Frank Goodall, of Temecula, who is stopping in town, received a letter yesterday from his home, stating that five-eighths of an inch of rain fell there Sunday night, and that a quarter of an inch fell in fifteen minutes, being the heaviest fall there ever known. Mr. Goodall and Mr. Ely Graves will start to-day for their home in Temecula.

Antinori Concert Postponed.

Owing to the inclemency of the weather Prof. Antinori deemed it advisable to postpone the opera-concert until next Monday evening. In the meantime the amateurs announced to appear will rehearse and perfect themselves. The weather will probably be settled by that time also, hence the postponement will doubtless be agreeable to everybody.

COURT NOTES.

Yesterday morning Thomas B. Hulse was arraigned before Judge Sepulveda for the murder of Reuter, and on the motion of his counsel was allowed until to-morrow to answer the indictment.

The Los Angeles County Bank was allowed to dismiss its suit against J. V. Preston and others without prejudice.

The case of Meyers against Jones, before Judge Howard, was passed till to-morrow at 10 A. M.

The petition for letters of administration in the estate of A. Alvarado, deceased, was set for next Tuesday.

The case of Lucas, administrator, against P. Pico was before Judge Howard yesterday. A motion for resting order was submitted and taken under advisement. Objections to the appointment of a receiver were then heard and taken under advisement.

In the matter of the estate of D. Navarro, deceased, passed till Monday at 10 A. M.

The application of E. Gray Smith for a writ of habeas corpus upon the Smith child was considered.

Cow vs. Horse.

Yesterday afternoon the patient endeavors of a vaquero to lead, or rather haul, a cow through Spring street, was witnessed by a large number of people who had plenty of idle time enforced upon them by the storm. It was a simple test of which possessed the greater strength—the horse or the cow. From the way the bovine quadruped would plant her pedal extremities in the mud, and take a back action stand, causing the equine's vertebræ to arch up, rainbow like, as do those of Thomas felines of moonlight nights at courting parties, it was sometimes a doubt as to the horse's power of endurance to have his back so often thus bent double. The riata stood the test like a storm-cable, and in half an hour the persevering vaquero had gotten from the post office to Temple street.

Catfish Stories.

Yesterday was a good day for catfish. Charles White, who came in from Downey City, reported the road near Baker's ranch alive with catfish floundering in the running water. They were so thick the people were shoveling them out with pitchforks. A gentleman, coming into town, found a large black catfish, or what some called the bull-pup variety, in the road; probably this marine feline animal had just run ashore. He brought it to the court house, and gave it to Tax Collector Cullen, who placed it in one of Janitor Green's buckets. Green didn't like this, and was sputtering around on making the discovery. The fish was fifteen inches long and weighed about two pounds.

Returned to Illinois.

Mr. Jas. T. Hoblit, with his family, left on the Orizaba yesterday for his old home at Lincoln, Ill. Mr. Hoblit came with the expectation of making a home here, but he received business offers of such merit that he decided to return and accept them. His departure is greatly regretted by all who formed his acquaintance while here, and they are many. He might have left that big "Buttercluck" cane as a souvenir.

Almost a Cloudburst.

Yesterday at half-past one o'clock the rain descended almost as a cloudburst for a few minutes. It was the hardest rainfall for a few moments of any time during the present storm.

Postponed.

On account of the inclement weather, the fairy spectacle, "The Triumph of Love," will be postponed until Friday and Saturday evenings, March 17th and 18th.

A good judge of the value of things in the real estate line gives it as his opinion that lands have advanced twenty-five per cent. since last week. We hope it won't affect the City and County Assessors that way.

Ventura reports 3.55 inches of rain from Sunday up to last night, making a total of 10.05 for the season. Ventura river is impassable, and the mail is stopped. The Santa Clara river is very high also, hence no mails were received from the north yesterday.

Mr. M. J. Bundy, of Santa Ana, was yesterday married at the residence of Mr. Washburn; of Pasadena, to a lady just arrived from the East. We thought there was something important on hand when we saw him slily jump into Reynold's hack and start for Pasadena.

The Italian Consul at San Francisco has forwarded a letter to the County Clerk asking for a certificate of the death of Alessandro Repetto. The letter was sent to the deceased (?) for him to answer. The reply will doubtless be characterized by a liberal dose of grim humor.

In transcribing the notes descriptive of Rev. J. W. Ellis' house in last Tuesday's issue a few mistakes were made in the numbers. The following are the correct figures: Parlor, 18x24 feet; main chamber, 20x14 feet, divided in three departments; kitchen and dining room, each 13x19 feet. The other numbers were correct.

The rain which began at twelve o'clock Tuesday night, continued almost without interruption until yesterday afternoon, after which, and until the present time, 3:30 A. M., occasional showers have fallen, giving nearly three inches as the total since Sunday. The total for the season is about nine inches.

William Welsh and William Shaw got to fighting last night on Main street. Shaw hit Welsh over the head with a beer glass. They were both under the influence of liquor. Shaw, when arrested, had $71 in his pocket. After officer McMahon had arrested them Shaw's wife, a colored woman, came around to the police office and wanted to bail him out.

NORWALK.

Plenty of Rain—Cheese Factory—Debating Club, Etc.

A broad smile now illuminates the countenance of everyone you meet, and the glorious rain is the chief topic of conversation. This section is safe, and good crops are assured.

The measles, which have been making the rounds of this community among the children, have now entirely disappeared.

An exciting debate took place at the school house last Wednesday evening, the question being: Resolved, "That infidel publications should be suppressed by law." It was decided in the affirmative. The question for discussion at the next meeting, which will be held on the 24th inst., is: Resolved, "That works of fiction are injurious."

Messrs. Lumbard & Johnson have five carpenters at work on their cheese factory. They have ordered the very best machinery, and they hope in a very short time to have their cheese in the market.

Elder Wallace has been holding a very interesting protracted meeting in the Artesia church during the past week, and many sinners have been shown the errors of their ways.

Mr. D. Walters, who was injured by being thrown from his horse some time ago, is now able to be around once more.

The saloon was closed here last Sunday.

Searching for a Lost Child.

Yesterday evening about 5:30 o'clock a lady named Bellton, stopping with her two children at Smith's Hotel was horrified at the sudden loss of her little boy about fifteen months old. Being a bright, active little fellow he was often allowed to toddle outside on the sidewalk, but after a diligent search by the whole force and guests of the hotel, nothing could be seen or heard of him. Mr. Smith, among others, searched all over the city for a long time unsuccessfully, however, until he happened to go along Main street near the court house about dark, and met the child in charge of a gentleman walking slowly along the street, as if in search of its relatives. He had met the child on Main street, near First. The little chap had strayed away over three blocks, running the gauntlet of street crossings, passing vehicles, etc., entirely uninjured. When Smith arrived home with the child the other one, about four years old, could not be found. Again the poor mother was well nigh distracted with fear, after a momentary joy over the recovery of the other. Diligent search was once more made, the truant child being found at the plaza opposite the Pico House, uninjured also.

The Normal School.

A TIMES reporter interviewed Professor J. H. Braly last evening just before he left for San Jose. Prof. Braly's business here was looking after the Normal School. He says the work progresses more favorably than was expected. The people are all of one mind, the location of the building is splendid, and when the work is completed a building will be had one-half the size of the one at San Jose at one-third of its cost. One good thing Prof. Braly did while on this visit was to make provision for a room for the philosophical apparatus. Such a place requires sunlight, and was selected in the western addition of the building. The Professor went home feeling greatly encouraged.

Police Pickings.

In the case of the People against Stolt, before Justice Fisher, the witnesses for the people were examined, and, on motion of the District Attorney, the defendant was discharged.

The case of the People against Silva, charged with assault with intent to commit bodily harm upon Tomas Bermudas, will come up before Justice Fisher.

Thomas Wilson and Thomas Francis, the Cosmopolitan hotel burglars, were examined yesterday in the police court. Wilson will please guilty to the charge of burglary, and Francis does not know if he will, but may do so to-day. This will land these birds in the State's prison. They were held to answer before the Superior Court under bail of $500, which being unable to give they were remanded to the county jail.

Another Manufacturing Enterprise.

Mr. S. J. Milliken, a carriage and wagon manufacturer of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, came here with his family a few months ago, hoping that the beautiful climate of Los Angeles would cure a disease of many years' standing. He has almost wholly recovered and has concluded to remain here permanently. He has opened an unpretentious manufactory at No. 38 Los Angeles street, and believes he will be enabled to develop his present small shop into a first-class carriage and wagon manufactory. See advertisement.

The Orizaba.

The steamship Orizaba left for San Francisco and way ports yesterday with the following list of passengers: C M Blackman and wife, Miss C Levy, J C Harris and wife, Miss L McCrystle, Wm Judd, H F Meyerholz, E Roberts, Jas T Hoblit, wife and 4 children, G Allen, Jas Brown, C A Wilson, J A Clark, J C Conway; 32 in steerage.

The Streets.

The rain fell so abundantly yesterday that various small rivers, able to float small vessels, were running the streets on the down grade. At the junction of Main and Spring there was almost enough water to float the present United States navy.

Dick Fellows.

A letter from this noted personage to a reporter of the TIMES says his trial will come off next Monday week, the 27th instant, in the Superior Court of Santa Barbara county.

COMPTON.

Sociability the Order with Ye Residents of Compton.

A Pleasant Party at A. J. Sanor's—Music and Joy Abound—Affectionate Buggies and Snuggling Chairs.

The people of Compton are still jogging along without any remarkable acts of somnambulism or murder to create any undue excitement, and yet whenever that wagon filled with chairs and the chairs filled with "brothers, sisters and friends," is seen wending its way along the streets, and drawn by a pair of horses that were never known to run away to excite the driver into a state of nervous frenzy, it is very evident that something is going to happen of importance within ten miles of Compton. And so it was the case on last Friday evening. Mr. A. J. Sanor heartily welcomed the driver, horses, wagon, the chairs and their occupants and all the human persuasion was invited into the cosy little house and there welcomed by the family. And still the teams continued to come, of different styles and dimensions, and some of the buggies, perhaps, were a little more affectionate than others, and yet they were all bound for the "social at Sanor's," and undoubtedly behaved themselves properly. And as "birds of a feather flock together," the older members occupied one and the younger another portion of the house, though there was no "dead line," and the intermingling became general before their departure. After a goodly number had arrived and were comfortably seated, there was a call for music. Mrs. Wm. Steele sang a few songs, one of which bore a semblance to a midnight scene, and the strokes of the clock suspended against the wall of the room, chimed in with the accompaniment of the organ, after which Miss Mary Whaley produced music from the organ, which was accompanied by a few strains of vocal music by several of the company. The house was well filled with a respectable number of the elite of Compton, which occasioned a need of some of those inevitable chairs which had been "resting" for a short time in that worthy vehicle of Compton fame. And naturally enough nearly all the chairs seemed to snuggle together in quite a social attitude, and undoubtedly would have done so if the house had been as large as Vanderbilt's parlor.

The evening passed pleasantly away and as the company were about to separate and Mr. Sanor was getting his accommodating elbow in position to render overcoat assistance, Mr. John Howard became the unassuming and genial "speaker of the house" and said that as the majority of the members of the previously appointed Committee on Arrangements were absent, the regular social organization would necessarily be postponed until the next meeting.

NEWPORT.

A Small Sized Cyclone Makes its Appearance.

Last Monday, about 5 o'clock in the afternoon, as Mr. and Mrs. Firebaugh were standing in their door watching the rain, their attention was drawn toward Newport by a noise somewhat peculiar, when to their horror they noticed a large wave of water, accompanied by a heavy wind, crossing the mesa, and when near their house it separated, part going northeast and the other northwest. The one going northeast gained in force so that when it struck Mr. Jamison's place it blew over his corn crib and hay stack, and whirled a cow that was tied near by around like a top. It next struck Mr. Henry Bush's house, moving it about eight or ten inches. It then passed on across the plains toward the mountains.

J. W. Hinton, County Superintendent of Schools, gave us a pleasant call this week. He has just purchased ten acres of land near Orange, which he intends planting out in grape vines this season.

The best rain of the season began falling Sunday night, and continued during Monday, accompanied by thunder and lightning—something rare in these parts. Dry weather prophets have all gone to Oregon or Salt Lake—they can't prophesy worth a cent.

Looking for a Home.

Three families, numbering about twenty-five people, from Missouri, are in this city looking for a home. Finding their bills running up too fast at the hotels, they moved into a house in the suburbs, and are taking it pioneer style for the time. Such people are the kind wanted to build up the new State of Southern California.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.

Three Young Roughs go Through a Chinaman.

Last night between eight and nine o'clock a trio of roughs knocked down a Chinaman at the junction of Main and Alameda street, along by the blue gum trees, and relieved him of forty dollars in cash and a watch. Their names are Francisco Ballastero, Louis Lowenthal and Juan Baga. The Chinaman is a clerk in the employ of Sisson, Wallace & Co.'s store at the depot. He was struck in the face and badly cut, and when found by the police was almost insensible. Officer Celis arrested them promptly. Ballestero is an old offender, and this time is sure to go to San Quentin. They are boys from eighteen to twenty years old. The watch and money were recovered.
